

- _____ 5. Are oppressed brethren to take vengeance on their oppressors?
- _____ 6. Are there times when brethren should murmur against brethren?
- _____ 7. Does James prove that effectual, fervent prayers of righteous avails much?
- _____ 8. Did some men in the church-infancy age have gift to miraculously heal the sick? (1Cor. 12:28-29).
- _____ 9. Do elders have the power today to heal by the laying on of hands? (1Cor. 13:8-10).
- _____ 10. Do the prayers of the righteous still obtain blessings available from God today?
- _____ 11. Is confession of faults associated with the forgiveness of sins.
- _____ 12. Is a brother who errs from the truth lost until he is converted?

TRUE or FALSE

- _____ 1. The wealth of men may be alluring to men, but rotten in God's sight.
- _____ 2. Those living in wanton pleasures are as safe as the righteous.
- _____ 3. There are times when murmuring, vengeance, and swearing are justified.
- _____ 4. One may establish his heart in righteousness; or nourish it for slaughter.
- _____ 5. Patient endurance has nothing to do with receiving God's mercy.
- _____ 6. Prayers are limited to the suffering, and singing to public worship.
- _____ 7. If one is merry, he should sing "Rock and Roll, and Do the Twist".
- _____ 8. Saving souls is the greatest of works, but limited to preachers.

JAMES 5:1-20

- 1. Who are addressed in v. 1? _____ What are they told to do? _____ Why? _____
_____ Does James call them brethren? _____
- 2. What had happened to their riches? _____
Garments? _____ Their gold and silver? _____
_____ What would their rust do? 1 _____
2 _____
- 3. How did the rich treat their laborers? _____
How did the rich live? 1 _____ 2 _____
3 _____
- 4. How did the rich treat the just? 1 _____ 2 _____
What are "brethren" urged to do? 1 _____ 2 _____
Until when? _____
- 5. Why not grudge (murmur)? _____
Who is at the door? _____ In what are prophets an example? 1 _____ 2 _____
- 6. How do we consider those who endure? _____
What lessons are learned from Job? _____
When are we to swear? _____
- 7. What if one among them was afflicted? _____ Merry? _____
_____ Sick? _____ What were the elders to do? 1 _____ 2 _____
- 8. What shall save the sick? _____ Who raises him up? _____ What of his sins? _____
_____ To whom are we to confess? _____

- 9. What kind of prayer avails much? 1 _____ 2 _____
3 _____ For what did Elijah pray? 1 _____
_____ 2 _____

10. What if a brother errs from the truth? _____ What is accomplished by such conversion? 1 _____
_____ 2 _____

SELECT CORRECT ANSWER(S)

- _____ 1. Rich man are mentioned as obtaining riches: 1.honestly;
2.by fraud; 3.by hard work.
- _____ 2. Rich men are mentioned as living: 1.for God; 2.for Christ;
3.in wanton pleasure.
- _____ 3. The rich men described had used their wealth in: 1.serving the Lord of sabbath; 2.defending just ones; 3.nourishing their own hearts.
- _____ 4. Wealth attained by fraud, or misused, will: 1.testify against;
2.fatten for slaughter the heart of: 3.bring misery upon: its possessor.
- _____ 5. We are urged never to: 1.establish our hearts; 2.be patient;
3.murmur.
- _____ 6. Prophets are examples in: 1.suffering; 2.patience;
3.endurance; 4.happiness; 5.proving God is merciful.
- _____ 7. One is condemned for swearing by: 1.heaven; 2.earth; 3.any oath.
- _____ 8. There are times when Christians: 1.suffer; 2.are merry; 3.are sick; 4.have faults.
- _____ 9. Elijah: 1.had human passions; 2.prayed; 3.saw his prayers answered.
- _____ 10. A brother can: 1.err from the truth; 2.commit sins; 3.lost his soul.
- _____ 11. An erring brother can: 1.be won back; 2.hide his sins; 3.be saved from death in that condition.

MATCHING (Group 1)

- | | |
|---------------|-------------------------------|
| 1. Laborer | _____ Shall come upon some |
| 2. Grudge | _____ Are corrupted |
| 3. Husbandman | _____ Rust of gold and silver |
| 4. Miseries | _____ Hire kept by fraud |
| 5. Judge | _____ Nourished for slaughter |
| 6. Riches | _____ Condemned and killed |
| 7. Witness | _____ Await His coming |
| 8. Hearts | _____ Await earth's fruits |
| 9. Just One | _____ Don't do it |
| 10. Lord | _____ Is before the door |

MATCHING (Group 2)

- | | |
|-------------|-------------------------------|
| 1. Prayer | _____ Can be saved from death |
| 2. Elders | _____ Example in patience |
| 3. Confess | _____ Don't ever do it |
| 4. Elijah | _____ When merry |
| 5. Swear | _____ When in suffering |
| 6. Souls | _____ Call for them |
| 7. Job | _____ One to another |
| 8. Sing | _____ Avails much, if right |
| 9. Prophets | _____ Saw prayers answered |
| 10. Pray | _____ Can be saved from death |

YES or NO

- _____ 1. Is there more sin in being rich than virtue in being poor?
- _____ 2. Can material riches save the ungodly in the day of destruction?
- _____ 3. Should management and labor be fair? (Col. 3:22-35; Col.
4:1)
- _____ 4. Does the Lord hear the oppressive cry of the righteous poor?