

YES or NO

- Y __ 1. In the New Testament, mount Zion, the New Jerusalem, the Jerusalem from above, is the Lord's church. (Heb. 12:22-23; Gal. 4:26-30; Rev. 21:1-5, etc.)
- N __ 2. The 144,000 had committed fornication with the Harlot of Revelation 14:8.
- N __ 3. If "everlasting", does this gospel differ from what we now have?
- Y __ 4. The idea for no "guile" means no deceit, or hypocrisy. (vs. 5)
- Y __ 5. Is "Babylon" identified as "a great city" and a "she."?
- Y __ 6. Is the enemy of the Lord's people that is identified as "Babylon", "that great city" also identified in Rev. 17:4-6 as a harlot?
- Y __ 7. Is the entity that is identify as "Babylon", "that great city", the woman who is a harlot, also identified in Rev. 11:9 as the city "where our Lord was crucified".

TRUE OR FALSE

- F __ 1. Revelation 14:2-3 is authority for instruments of music being used in church worship today.
- T __ 2. The 144,000 were symbolic of the Jewish-Christians who were the "first-fruits" but the Lord had other sheep [Gentiles] also in his fold. (John 10:16)
- T __ 3. The "everlasting gospel" [vs 6] was to be preached to every nation, tribe, tongue, and people before the "end" mentioned in Matthew 24:14.
- [In context, "the end" is when "no stone would be left upon another", and the Jerusalem temple and the city would be destroyed by the Romans, cf Mark 13:1-4, Luke 21.]
- T __ 4. From Rev. 14:7-8 we see that the fall of Jerusalem in AD 70 was a judgment from God.
- [Like the world flood of Gen 7-8; the plagues of Egypt, the fall of Israel to Assyrians, the fall of Jerusalem to the Babylonians, then the fall of Babylon to the Meads-Persians, were all "judgments" and a "coming" or a "Day of the Lord" against those who opposed God.]
- T __ 5. The "angel" of vs. 18 came from the "altar" where the souls of Revelation 6:9-10 were crying for "vengeance."
- T __ 6. Rev. 13 is full of gloom and despair, but Revelation doesn't end with ch. 13. Sometimes the lives of saints may have some gloom and despair, but it doesn't end that way.
